

Good to the Last Drip

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. (aerial) Of or in the air</li> <li>2. (deciduous) Shedding its leaves every year; not evergreen</li> <li>3. (ecologist) A scientist who studies the relationships between living things and their environment</li> <li>4. (equation) A written statement that indicates the equality of two expressions.</li> <li>5. (erosion) The process or state of wearing or washing away</li> <li>6. (heritage) Something handed down from the past</li> <li>7. (intercepted) Stopped or interrupted</li> </ol> | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>8. (meteorological) Having to do with weather or climate</li> <li>9. (regulation) The act of controlling according to a system</li> <li>10. (species) Groups of organisms that resemble one another in appearance, behavior, chemical processes, and genetic structure</li> </ol> |
|---|--|