

Attack of the Killer Anthracnose

L
 C X G
 M M O Q D
 G S E M S V J
 F O I F F A M H Z
 E U O S U L D C V X F
 R L N U E N F O V U J E Q
 I Q G H H G Q O R D P I W
 J D U B T I W D S T I W P
 L E S O N C A R H T N A D
 S E Q B Y I U Z D X L O Z
 E P A C S D N A L S G R C
 B S V O O E F X B W G D E
 N M O T S M R O O T C
 U K O W W O A U M
 K H Y D Q J Y
 P R M G P
 J G Y
 G

1. Plant disease identified by dark spots and blisters ; caused by imperfect fungi . i
2. Organism or object used for comparison in an experiment.
3. A type of deciduous tree with flowers.
4. An agent that destroys fungi or prevents its growth.
5. A plant-like organism that contains no chlorophyll and reproduces by spores; for example, mold, mushrooms, mildew.
6. The visual land, such as trees, water, and sky.
7. Formation of carbohydrates when chlorophyll is exposed to light; refers to the ability of plants to make their own food with the use of sunlight.