Controlling the Rust is a Must

- (genes) Small sections of DNA which contain hereditary information.
- (genetic code)
 Specific genes
 that are the same for forms
 of life.
- (offspring) The product or result of something or someone; like a child.

- (pathogen) An organism or other agent that causes disease.
- (pollen) Particles containing genetic material for reproduction of plants.
- 6. (resistance) Able to withstand an effect.
- (spores)
 Microscopic bodies which alter germination
 and develop into fungi.
- 8. (susceptible)
 Can easily be affected by something, such
 as disease.
- (technology)
 Mechanical
 improvements
 intended to aid
 human activities.